Bible Passages

Psalm 139

¹O LORD, you have examined my heart
and know everything about me.
²You know when I sit down or stand up.
You know my thoughts even when I'm far away.
³You see me when I travel and when I rest at home. You know everything I do.
⁴You know what I am going to say even before I say it, LORD.
⁵You go before me and follow me.
You place your hand of blessing on my head.
⁶Such knowledge is too wonderful for me,
too great for me to understand!
⁷I can never escape from your Spirit!
I can never get away from your presence! ⁸If I go up to heaven, you are there; if I go down to the grave, you are there. ⁹If I ride the wings of the morning, if I dwell by the farthest oceans, ¹⁰even there your hand will guide me, and your strength will support me. ¹¹I could ask the darkness to hide me and the light around me to become night— ¹² but even in darkness I cannot hide from you.
To you the night shines as bright as day.

¹³You made all the delicate, inner parts of my body and knit me together in my mother's womb.

¹⁴Thank you for making me so wonderfully complex!

Your workmanship is marvelous—how well I know it. ¹⁵You watched me as I was being formed in utter seclusion, as I was woven together in the dark of the womb.

¹⁶You saw me before I was born.

Every day of my life was recorded in your book. Every moment was laid out before a single day had passed.

¹⁷How precious are your thoughts about me, O God.

They cannot be numbered! ¹⁸I can't even count them; they outnumber the grains of sand! And when I wake up, you are still with me!

¹⁹O God, if only you would destroy the wicked!

Get out of my life, you murderers! ²⁰They blaspheme you; your enemies misuse your name.

²¹O LORD, shouldn't I hate those who hate you?

Shouldn't I despise those who oppose you? ²²Yes, I hate them with total hatred, for your enemies are my enemies. ²³Search me, O my anxious thoughts.

²⁴Point out anything in me that offends you, and lead me along the path of everlasting life.
